

Welcome to the RCI Multi-Jurisdiction Licensing Program

There's a simplified licensing process for owners. It's called the Multi-Jurisdiction Licensing Program. This new program, developed by the Association of Racing Commissioners International (RCI), has been designed to assist owners in obtaining their licenses in several different jurisdictions by utilizing one application.

No longer will you have to fill out a separate application every time your horse races in another jurisdiction. This owner's application will be accepted by over 30 racing jurisdictions. This program also offers a fingerprint process where the owner can be printed on a special RCI fingerprint card. Owners need only to check off the states where they plan to race. The FBI will send reports to each state chosen. This will reduce the necessity of owners having to be printed in more than one state/jurisdiction.

The process is a simple one. Just follow these three easy steps:

- Step 1 Read and follow the detailed instructions.
- Step 2 Complete the Multi-Jurisdiction license application on-line and print it.
- Step 3 Make copies of the completed application and mail or deliver it to each participating jurisdiction in which you will race, with the appropriate fee.

Please note that once you've printed off the application and completed it, but before signing it, make the number of copies you will need based on the number of states/jurisdictions you'll race in, therefore assuring that each racing jurisdiction will have an original signature.

Be Interactive!

Helpful Hints: When completing the on-line application it is easiest to use all capital letters and use your tab key to tab from one field to the next. Use the delete key or type "N/A" to remove information that does not apply. To print only the application specify pages 3 through 6.

Instructions for RCI Multi-Jurisdiction License Application Process

GENERAL INFORMATION: All participating jurisdictions have agreed to accept the Multi-Jurisdiction License Application in lieu of a state or provincial license form. Participating jurisdictions and fees are current as of June 1, 2009. You may call the Association of Racing Commissioners International (RCI) or participating jurisdictions to inquire about any updates.

APPLICATIONS: Make copies of the completed Multi-Jurisdiction License Application and either hand deliver or mail it along with the applicable fee (see fee structure for each jurisdiction) to each participating jurisdiction where you are seeking a license. You are responsible for delivering this application and applicable fees to each jurisdiction. Participating jurisdictions will not forward copies of this application and fees to other jurisdictions.

FINGERPRINTS: Some states require that first-time licensees submit an RCI fingerprint card and the payment of a $36 fee (some require $38). You will submit a fingerprint card to only one of the participating jurisdictions. To have fingerprint reports sent to all other jurisdictions to which you plan to apply, mark those jurisdictions on the back of the RCI fingerprint card. You may choose to get fingerprinted at a race track or by your local police or sheriff's office. Regardless of the location, be sure to use the RCI fingerprint card. Additionally, those renewing licensees may be required to submit fingerprints on a periodic basis; typically, once every five years. Applicants will be advised of requirements by each jurisdiction. Refer to the fee schedule for directions regarding to whom checks should be made payable to and whether separate checks are required (one for your license and one for your fingerprints, if using the RCI fingerprint card).

WHERE TO MAIL FORMS: Completed fingerprints along with a check or money order for $36 or $38 (no cash!) may be mailed to the racing commission where you plan to race next or to the commission requiring your prints. This completed license form and applicable license fee must accompany the completed fingerprint card and fingerprint fee. The payment for fingerprints varies from jurisdiction to jurisdiction. Refer to the available fee schedule to determine both the license fees and fingerprint fees.

For RCI fingerprint cards, further information or questions on license fees, please contact the next jurisdiction in which you plan to apply for a license or the RCI headquarters at (859) 224-7070.
